The Rowan: Our affordable, supportive Private Farewell Funeral

An intimate funeral service, meeting at our 30 to 35 seat Service Hall (number of mourners to be advised at the time of need), to share a gentle farewell in the presence of the coffin and most supportive relatives and friends – with all the time you need.

The Direct Cremation (the part you are not present for at any Crematorium) takes place locally the following morning with no mourners present – saving a considerable amount.

How the Funeral is invoiced

A deposit of £950, plus any options added is normally required four days prior to the funeral.

Where you are eligible to claim the DEP funeral grant towards costs, the grant awarded would typically cover or almost cover all that remains on the account after the deposit is paid. This funeral is designed with that grant in mind to help you go ahead and achieve all the elements of a full funeral, at a reduced cost.

In cases of DWP fund application, or other non-guaranteed funds, e.g. crowd funding, we will require a guarantor signature to pledge settlement should the non-guaranteed payment be declined.
